Betty Cummings
FRESHMAN YEAR.

Betty!

I guess our fame at LHS is slowly but surely rising - meaning - this year has been crammed full of our life ambitions. For you, going steady has really given you alot to live for.

I'll never forget how wonderful you were in keeping all my confessions and secrets and being so patient with me while I told you all my plans and problems. You've really been a life saver when my mind needed to be relieved of all its many burdens.

In school this year we were still "close buddies" and thanks for explaining some homework to me.

Those hectics nights at each other's house! We kept each other awake indefinately until we were too tired for words - oh, our patient parents!!

Those football, basketball, and baseball games surely lasted late, didn't they! (Barely gave us time for our "demanded" visits at Redwood.)

Our "solemn romances" are being to take shape as our graduation in '61 draws nearer.

I want to thank you so much for taking me to school, choir practice, music, track meet, games and everyplace - also for going with me to get my permit.

Those Roanoke trips were great, too.

I hope you and Tom don't have any quarrels so I won't hear about them.

If we're real lucky, we might be WE WILL BE signing the cheerleading page before '61. I sure hope so. Wouldn't we be living? Well, '59 see you at the club this summer. (Goshen, too.)

I seriously mean this - you're the best friend a girl can have, and I thank you.

Your devoted friend,

Janice

Dedication

To one who started his teaching career at Lexington High School the same year we, the seniors of 1957-1958, entered; to one who holds the interest of many young students in the aspect of science and mathematics; to one whose winning smile and pleasing personality have made him well liked by student and teacher alike, we, the seniors of 1957 - 1958, are proud to dedicate the Crystal to one who will be long remembered by all of us.

ANDREW W. LINDSAY

Foreword

The Staff of the 1957-1958 CRYSTAL has tried to emphasize school life and school activities more than ever before. We feel that in past years, not enough attention has been given to the scenes around us, those incidents which have become familiar to most of us and, therefore, unnoticed.

The Staff has enjoyed its work and hopes that you, the students, will approve the fruits of our labor.

SENIOR HISTORY

It was all the way back in 1953 when we first entered the halls of Lexington High School. As had many groups of eighth graders before us, we anticipated making many new friends, renewing friendships of grammar school, and having new activities and new teachers. We started our first year at L.H.S. by electing Sonny Slusser as class president, and Judy Donald as vice-president. John Starling was chosen secretary-treasurer and Gilly Gillespie was appointed as Honor Court representative.

Having finished the eighth grade, we were eagerly looking forward to the time when we would be full-fledged high school students.

This year when the time for class elections came around, we chose Kitty Paxton as president, and Charlie Brown as vice-president. Sonny Slusser became secretary-treasurer, and John Starling represented us on the Honor Court.

As ninth graders, we were privileged to have one elective along with our required courses. Also, we were able to join more clubs, thus making our activities more varied. From the first year Latin class we sent Mack Brownlee, Mary Brush, Alice Neale Moger, Kitty Paxton, and Judy Roberts to the Latin Tournament where Alice Neale and Mack tied for first place in the district.

By 1955 we were Sophomores and were anxiously awaiting the time when we could call ourselves by that glorious name--seniors. This time our class leaders were John Starling, president; Charlie Brown, vice-president; Sally Drake, secretary-treasurer; and Mack Brownlee, Honor Court representative. That was the year when our teams walked away with three district championships.

At last we began to feel almost as equals with the seniors, for as juniors, we were just one step away from that exalted position. We immediately set to work planning dances and bake sales to make money to treat the seniors at the Junior-Senior Banquet in May. To lead us toward this goal, we chose Sonny Slusser as junior class president; and Charlie Brown, vice-president. Jane Coleman became secretary-treasurer, and Mack Brownlee and Peggy Whitmore were elected to the Honor Court.

Although our class was considerably smaller this year, we were still a powerful group, and along with the seniors we sponsored the Christmas dance and the Twirp Week square dance. We also held a successful bake sale. Again Alice Neale went to the Latin Tournament, and this time she became the first place winner in the state.

Two other important events of our junior year were the receiving of our class rings and the Junior-Senior Banquet and prom at the Natural Bridge Hotel.

Summer passed quickly enough, and at last September, 1957, arrived. Having become seniors, at our first assembly we were privileged to sit on the first three rows in front of the speaker and to take our place in the senior homeroom. At that time our greatest object was to get to Washington, so at our first class meeting, after we had elected Alice Neale Moger as our president, we enthusiastically began to plan ways to enlarge the treasury. Other leaders of the class were Brooke Mallory, vice-president; and Judy Donald, secretary-treasurer. Marilyn Fauber, Peggy Whitmore, and Brooke Mallory were sent to the Honor Court, and Mack Browlee was 1957-1958 Student Body president.

After much hard work such as writing senior theses, a government term paper, and making plans for the trip, we came to the end of our stay at L.H.S.

Graduation climaxed those five great years, and so we gathered our books and memories and those ever coveted diplomas and began to look forward to a rosy future in college or whatever way of life we might have chosen. We hope that the Class of '58 will long be remembered by the students and faculty. We will never forget you.

Last Will and Testament

I, Ralph Arehart, bequeath my seat in Government to anyone who likes speeches.

I, Margie Ayres, bequeath to my sister, Deanie, my grades in shorthand.

I, Shirley Ballard, bequeath my ability to get along with Miss Adair in shorthand to Nellie Clark in hopes that she receives as much polishing as I.

I, Barbara Bowyer, bequeath my desk in Government to Ann Johnson in hopes that she will occupy it better than I have.

I, Carl Brown, bequeath my grades to my brother, Warren Brown.

I, Charley Brown, bequeath my "great" speed and my 145 lbs. to next year's fullback.

I, Rada Brown, bequeath to my twin brothers, Tommy and Teddy, the ability to get along in mathematics.

I, Mack Brownlee, bequeath my basketball ability to Dom Flora, Rod Hundley, Bob Consy, and John Leary.

I, Bobby Carroll, bequeath my seat in Miss Hamilton's English to anyone who wants(?) it.

I, Jimmy Chittum, bequeath my seat at Steve's to Tommy Hartless in hopes that he can hold it better than I.

I, Jane Coleman, bequeath all the parties and fun that I have had at LHS to Sara Hotinger.

I, Jimmy Dale, bequeath my seat in Senior English to anyone who can take the punishment.

I, Herald Dean, bequeath my ability to go to the library every day to anybody that wants it.

I, Judy Donald, do bequeath to my sister, Gayle, all the fun that I have had at LHS in hopes that she has twice as much.

I, Ronnie Edwards, bequeath my desk in Mr. Thompson's homeroom to Nancy Mabry.

I, Jerry Entsminger, bequeath my seat in English to Jerry Brown, that is if he is able to get along with Miss Hamilton.

I, Marilyn Fauber, bequeath all my good ole times at LHS to my sister, Linda.

I, Bill Flourney, bequeath all my bad luck to whoever wants it.

I, Sylvia Greene, bequeath to my brother, Lew, my ability in math and chemistry.

I, Marvin Hostetter, bequeath my good grades in English to Willard Scott and Donald Napier.

I, Tommy Howard, bequeath my ability to waste time in study to anyone who thinks he can afford not to study.

I, Derby Huger, bequeath my ability to eat Steve's-burgers to Jerry Brown.

I, Brooke Mallory, bequeath my seat in Government to anyone who has the patience to remain in it.

I, Alice Moger, bequeath my ability to work during Scarletter makeup without missing any of the gossip to Lynne Barrett, with the hope that she will be more successful at keeping the staff relatively quiet than I have been.

I, Richard Nuclols, bequeath my front seat and good grades I didn't get in Apple's English to my sister, Vicki, and all the fun I've had my senior year to Linda Averill, and my ability to refuse a drink to anyone who needs it.

I, Melvin Smith, bequeath nothing because I am going to take it all with me.

I, Sonny Slusser, bequeath my appeal to women to John Leary.

I, Treva Tolley, bequeath to Betty Whitehurst and Carole Wright my ability to stay awake until 4:30 A.M. on certain Thursday nights and then appear awake the next day.

I, Clarence Troxell, bequeath my outstanding ability in English to Joe Higgins.

I, Tony Waddell, bequeath my visits to Steve's to KAT.

I, Peggy Whitmore, bequeath to my brother Ronnie my ability to keep late hours on Sunday nights and still go to school on Monday mornings.

I, Brenda Wooten, bequeath my ride to school to Ann Johnson.

The Junior class has really been working this year. Some of its activities have been to sponsor a square dance and the Easter dance.

The highlight of this year's activities was the Junior-Senior Banquet when the Juniors honored the Seniors.

This has been a great year, but we are now looking forward to our senior year when we will take our trip to Washington, D. C.

It seems that when you are finally in the "swing of it all" it suddenly ends and you are left to face the world on your own. That is how it is with us, the graduating class of 1960. We entered these portals as timid as mice; today we are known as the most talkative class of L.H.S. Tomorrow, well, who knows . . . we may well be future U.S. presidents . . . or maybe janitors.

Baseball-1957

Bill Lackey backed Oscar Mabry's 2-hit pitching with a home run and two singles as Lexington opened the season with a 6-2 win over Buchanan.

Consecutive doubles by Tommy Black and Tommy Howard and a single by Oscar Mabry produced two runs in the fifth inning and gave the Scarlet Hurricanes their second straight win, 3-1, over Wilson Memorial of Fishersville.

Don Steele started for the first time as Lexington won an easy 11-2 victory over Robert E. Lee at Staunton.

Lexington returned home to take their first defeat, a 21-3 shellacing by Waynesboro.

Wilson avenged their earlier setback by a 4-3 victory at Fishersville.

Oscar Mabry collected a triple and a double against Clifton Forge and then pitched a one hitter against Staunton as the team got on the winning trail again.

Five runs in the second inning were not enough as Lexington dropped a 6-5 decision to the Fighting Blues at Buena Vista. Tommy Black's three run triple headlined the big inning for the Hurricanes.

Bill Lackey drove in 3 runs with a pair of doubles to lead in an 8-5 triumph over Buchanan.

Lexington dropped its next two games 10-8 to Waynesboro and 7-3 to Natural Bridge. Lexington lead Natural Bridge until a five run, fourth inning enabled the Rockets to pull the game out of the fire.

Vernon Staton outpitched Oscar Mabry as Buena Vista won over the Hurricanes 2-0. Tommy Black's sixth inning double was the only hit for Lexington.

Central downed Lexington 3-1 on the Recreation Field. Two first inning runs gave the Falcons the victory.

The team closed its season by dropping a 4-1 decision to Natural Bridge.

The loss gave Lexington a 6-8 record on the season. Leading hitters for Lexington were two seniors, pitcher Oscar Mabry and 1ST baseman Bill Lackey. Also playing their last season were Dave Huffman, Ronnie McNemar, Malcolm Brownlee, Carl Brown, Jerry Buown, Ronnie Bryant, and Tony Waddell.

Basketball

Although the season is not yet over at the time this article is written, it is apparent that Lexington is on it's way to another winning season and also a berth in the District Tourney starting February 28. So far the Scarlet Hurricane five has compiled an 8-4 record to stand in fourth place in the District race.

Completing their basketball eligibility this season are Ronnie Whitmore, Mack Brownlee, and Leon Hartless, the District's leading scorer with a 23.3 average.

Best of luck to a real cute girl. Don't be too hard on Tom.
Tom Parish

1957 was another good year for Lexington High in football. The Scarlet Hurricanes proved once again that one of the smallest schools can be among the rest by compiling a 7-1 record.

Lexington opened the season by shellacing Natural Bridge 45-7. Jimmy Chittum's 75 yard run erased the Rocket's only lead late in the first quarter and from then on Lexington was in complete command as they killed any Natural Bridge hopes for another undefeated season.

Lexington came back the next week to gain an easy 47-6 victory over Central. It was the Hurricanes all the way as Reid Swisher scored three touchdowns and Jimmy Chittum two.

Staunton gave the Hurricanes their first real threat of the season, but they dropped a 26-14 decision in Lexington's Homecoming Game. Tommy Black took the opening kickoff 75 yards for the first score as Lexington built up a 13-0 first quarter lead. Staunton came back to score twice and give them a 14-13 lead in the third quarter. The Leemen appeared on their way to an upset victory until Charlie Brown took a lateral from Reid Swisher and went 45 yards to score. Reid Swisher's six yard run wrapped up the game in the fourth quarter.

The "Big" Red won their next two games easily 27-0 over Wilson Memorial and 39-13 over Buchanan.

Then came the only loss of the season, 20-13, to Waynesboro in the "Flu Bowl". The Little Giants struck early for two touchdowns to lead 14-0, but Lexington came back with a 95 yard kickoff return by Hartless to put Lexington back in the game. After the half Waynesboro scored again to go ahead 20-7. Lexington came back again in the third quarter with a sustained drive, making the final score 20-13, a hard-fought loss for the Hurricane.

Lexington was idle the next week because of the flu but went to Buena Vista the following week in full strength. The Scarlet Hurricane overwhelmed the traditional rival, Buena Vista, 32-7, in the best played game of the season. Backs, Hartless, Swisher, Brown, and Chittum carried the pigskin for good yardage throughout the game and the linemen held the Blues for a single tally proving that the bigger they are the harder they fall!

The team closed out the season with a 41-13 victory over Clifton Forge. Reid Swisher and Jimmy Chittum were the outstanding yard gainers of the night.

Twelve seniors played their last game for the Hurricanes, including quarterback Leon Hartless and Jimmy Chittum, who made the all-district team. Others who played their last game were Richard Nuckols, Charley Brown, Tommy Howard, Marvin Hostetter, Sonny Slusser, Ronnie Whitmore, Mac Brownlee, Joe Higgins, Ronnie Edwards, and Derby Huger.

Track-1957

For the second straight year Lexington participated in the District Track meet on April 27. Jimmy Chittum lead the Hurricanes by winning the 100 and 220 yard dashes and the broad jump. The 880 relay team composed of Dave Huffman, Bill Lackey, Don Steele, and Chittum won an easy victory. The fifth first place of the day was picked up by Mack Brownlee in the mile. Dave Huffman finished second in three events, the 100, 220, and broad jump. Other second places were won by Reid Swisher, Ronnie Ayers, and Mack Brownlee.

Don Steele picked up third place in the 100 yard dash and Morgan Tardy, Clyde Hartless, Tommy Black, and Bill Lackey won fourth places.

Lexington's total of 50 points gave them second place in the meet.

All first and second place winners qualified for the State Meet.

At the state meet held in Charlottesville in May 11, the 880 relay team broke the state record in their event but finished second. Jimmy Chittum picked up fourth places in the 100 yard dash and broad jump and Mack Brownlee placed fourth in the mile to give the squad a total of six points.

Secretary-Treasurer . . . . . Tommy Howard

The Boys' Monogram Club is made up of the boys who have won their letters through athletic participation in any of the three major sports.

The boys have this year selected several projects. Through the concessions at basketball games they have made enough money to buy their own monograms and gold minatures for the seniors. They have also decided to frame all athletic team pictures and to get a showcase in which to place the trophies. A scrapbook has been started for write-ups of athletic events.

Mr. Brewbaker is the advisor to this hard-working group.

The cheerleaders for 1957-58 were elected by the student body after they had participated in try outs during an assembly.

Lynne Barrett was appointed head cheerleader by the principal.

Since no girls at L.H.S. besides the cheerleaders are presented letters, the Girls' Monogram Club was abolished.

This energetic group of girls held two money making projects. They sold Lexington High pennants and later sold red and white pins for basketball season.

The cheerleaders wish to thank the Pep Squad for its support, Miss Eleanor Tardy for her supervision and aid, the teams for their victories, and the student body for their good attendance at the many games.

Chemistry Club

President . . . . . Brooke Mallory
Secretary-Historian . . . . . Bobby Carroll

From 1957: Mack Brownlee, Treva Tolley, Bobby Carroll, and Brooke Mallory
From 1958: Richard Nuckols, Roger Baroody, Jane Coleman, Marilyn Fauber, Sandra Ikenberry, Amy Randall, Willard Scott, Anne Weaver, Betty Whitehurst, and Peggy Whitmore.

The Chemistry Club, Lexington High School's only honor society, exists to recognize the chemistry and physics students who do outstanding work in these sciences. The chief requirement for membership is an A or B average on the first semester, or the entire year, in either physics or chemistry. Most members take four years of science and 3 or 4 years of math before they graduate.

The Chemistry Club, organized in 1949, is affiliated with the Science Clubs of America and the Virginia Junior Academy of Science. Members take part in some of the activities of these groups and encourage interest in science in our school in various ways. They also keep a scrapbook in which they keep up with the former members of the club.

We know that the members of the Chemistry Club will succeed in anything that they try, but here's luck to them anyway.

Crafts Club

The Crafts Club is made up of about 25 upperclassmen who make small individual projects and help to make club projects, which are constructed from wood, plaster, leather, or metal.

Some of the projects made this year are gun holsters, moccasins, coin purses, billfolds, posters for school activities, and improvements in the shop.

The French Club meets once a month with the students planning and conducting the meetings. The programs consist of talks given by outside visitors and activities by club members. They deal with French history and culture.

Students in the club were given the opportunity to correspond with a French-speaking student and to take a French newspaper. Letters from pen-pals have given interesting information on the educational system and activities of young people in France, Morocco, and Belgium.

The Lexington Chapter of Future Homemakers of America organized in October with 22 members who planned an interesting program of work for the year. In addition to the monthly programs, a number of other activities were planned. In November the club members entertained their parents, teachers, and friends at an Open House during American Education Week. They also served a banquet to the Kiwanis Club as a community service as well as a money making activity.

The club sponsored and participated in a panel on "Improving Understanding between Parents, Daughters, and Sons," which they presented to a school assembly. Also, they entertained their mothers with a Mother-Daughter Banquet at which time degrees of achievement were awarded to deserving members.

The club members planned and carried out a field trip to several stores to learn tips on wise buying, invited a home economist to speak on careers in economics.

During the Christmas season they devoted a program to work on Christmas suggestions that could be used in the home and make favors for the hospital for the patients' trays.

During National FHA Week the club members assisted with improving the homemaking department.

The club distributed Civil Defense booklets and planned an exhibit for the school showing a seven day supply of foods for an emergency for a family of four.

The club members entertained their teachers with a dinner and a program on people and customs of foreign lands.

One of the most impressive programs of the year was the emblem service and the installation of officers.

The club members enjoyed their programs and activities very much.

The Glee Club, composed of twenty girls under the direction of Mr. Bradford Booch, has had a very successful and busy year. The club met after school on Tuesdays and Thursdays for an hour and a half.

The group gave concerts during American Education Week, a Christmas program the eighteenth of December with the High School band and a quartet of girls, and an Easter program in March.

The club planned programs for several assemblies at school and sang for the Presbyterian church in February. Singing at Graduation and Baccularate Services will complete the year's activities.

Betty (cup.) Ed. has been a Phy. real joy this year, and I'm sure we are champions at softball. Lots of luck to ya shining personality.

This spring of 1958 the Honor Court again completed a successful year at Lexington High School. The group considers it a good year with many accomplishments made. They sponsored assembly programs during both mid-terms and final exam periods. These were a part of the court's purpose of keeping honesty and good behavior prevalent at school all the time.

FORTH ROW: Bill Flournoy, Tommy Black, Ralph Arehart, Sandra Hostetter, Linda Fauber, Bonnie Padgett, Nancy Mabry, Becky Black, Laura Dod, Gale Deaver, Lula Crist.

Because the Library Club was so large, it was divided into two sections, the Junior-Senior section and the Freshman-Sophomore section. The clubs met on alternate club days in the library.

At the first meeting, the Junior-Senior section elected Judy Donald, president; Nancy Mabry, vice-president; Harold Dean, secretary-treasurer. The Freshmen and Sophomores elected Jeanne Foster, president; Martha Griffith, vice-president; Harlan Light, secretary-treasurer.

The Library Club, sponsored by Mrs. McHenry, helps keep the library in order by shelving and mending books, planning bulletin boards, and doing similar jobs. During each study hall period there are two student librarians, who help in the library by checking books in and out.

So ends another exciting year in the Latin Club! At the beginning of the year the club decided to make a study of Roman life and customs. The club divided into special groups to make reports on the various aspects of the Roman civiliaztion. Special programs were given at Thanksgiving, Halloween, and Christmas, each program appropriate to the season. The students rewrote advertisements, made Christmas cards, Valentines, and Mother Goose rhymes in Latin. A special art committee helped to brighten the various programs with beautifully drawn illustrations. Mrs. Law assisted the Latin Club with all its projects.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Crystal Staff wishes to extend its thanks to our sponsors, to those who have done special write-ups for their respective groups or classes, and especially to Mr. Thompson, the Crystal's faculty advisor without whom the publication of this book would have been impossible.

May 15, 1958

My Dearest Betty,

I am going to start writing about when we started going together. On the night of December 21st I took you to the Christmas Dance. Boy! What a thrill. My first date with a cute little red-head who was to be my future "steady". Remember what happened last Christmas night? I do, and always will. I received the best Christmas present anyone could ever ask for, You! Then we started going out to someones house and dance and have fun, playing photography. Somehow, that short Christmas vacation lasted somewhat longer.

Then I found out what the telephone was invented for. To talk to your girl. Then I found out that your father didn't approve of long-winded talkers, and I soon shortened our calls from a couple of hours to five minutes, which I were obeyed immediately.

Soon our "secrets" began to unfold and reveal themselves one by one. And then the most dreaded thing of all lovers, arguements! Those horrible things! I think we were right good at it. I don't remember any serious ones. The same old routine after every arguement - I'm sorry, "smack", and every thing was allright again.

Remember all the fun we had with Joanne and Bill. If it wasn't for them I don't know where we would be. How about that bicycle ride out "60". What a climb!

I never will forget the night I came out to your house late (after eight). You came to the door, took one look and ran. I bet I really surprised you. Next time don't go to bed so early.

I had a lot of fun during basketball season..... sitting with you after the J.V. games. What time did you say those varsity games were over?

My whole life was one big boredom until you came into it. What a change! I was the happiest and luckiest boy in the whole world that Christmas. I hope we don't ever have to part. I'd rather die than break up with you. I hope I can fulfill all the promises I made to you. Especially the one six years from now.

I know by now you are thinking about all those "white lies" I fed to you. I was a born liar. Although some of them were lies. You just didn't believe me. You had your share of them too.

Honey, you don't know how much you mean to me. I remember when you were absent from school one day. I waited until the last bell to see if you came in late. When Janice told me you were sick my heart fell to my stomach. I believe that was the longest day of my life. Everything was dead. The halls seemed empty without you to brighten them up. I couldn't wait until I got home and called you. So you see Betty, my life would be pretty much at a standstill without you. I hope you never let me down. I couldn't think of leaving you, ever. Every moment I am with you, I will cherish always.

I hope you will reserve these two pages in next years Crystal.

With all my love,
Tom
